STAFF IS NAMED AT SCOUT CAMP

Horeshoe Season Will Open Near Oxford On Sunday

OXFORD, July 8—Camp Horseshoe, near Oxford, official Chester County Boy Scout Camp will open its season on Sunday. The camp is directed by Thomas J. Price, executive of the Chester County Council of Boy Scouts and Charles M. Dannenberg, assistant executive.

The camp staff will include: Camp caretaker, C. C. Cole; camp engineer, George Cole; business manager, Henri Gordon; editor, Camp Echo, and trading post manager, Charles Wilgis, assistant scoutmaster, Troop 70, Thorndale.

Camp Steward, Frank Beam, Scoutmaster Troop 35 Parkesburg; assistant stewart and head K. P., Calvin Trunk, assistant scoutmaster, Troop 74, Coatesville; chef, Albert Smith, and assistant chef, Clarence Henry, West Chester.

Campfire director, William P. Lear, scoutmaster Troop 21, West Chester; assistant director, Robert Else, Strafford.

Nature director, Raymond Keim, Enhaut, Pa.; assistant director of handicraft and quartermaster, Palmer Raysor; assistant scoutmaster, Troop 2, Downingtown.

Physician, Dr. L. W. Eichna, Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore; doctor's assistant, and bugler, Franklin Kelton, Paoli Troop 1.

Director of swimming and Kit Carson stockade leader, Hank Ewing, West Grove.

Director of boating and Boonsboro stockade leader, Elwood Speakman, assistant Scoutmaster Troop 78, Willistown; assistant to swimming, Mercer Sloan, Troop 30, West Grove.

Crocket Stockade leader and handicraft director, Glenn Wolfe, assistant Scoutmaster Troop 72, Pomeroy; Sherwood Forest stockade leader and scout tests instructor, David Hartmann, Troop 17, Phoenixville; assistant stockade leader (Kit Carson) Leon Lawrence, Troop 72, Pomeroy; assistant stockade leaders, George Balderson and Earl Buckwalter, West Chester; William Hesser, Phoenixville; Edgar McComsey, Coatesville; Charles Raysor and Harold Mitman, Downingtown.

The Kitchen Patrol members are: Robert Murphy, Troop 14, West Grove, and Austin Pyle, Troop 30, West Chester; Tom McIlvaine, Troop 2, Downingtown, and William Barry, Troop 6, West Chester; Woolsey Coates, Troop 2, Downingtown, and Earl Alexander, Troop 35, Parkesburg; Edwin Ashton, Jr., Troop 43, West Chester.