

COUNTY SCOUT CAMP TO OPEN SUN., JULY 9TH

Large Enrollment Expected; Camp Director Announces His Staff at "Horseshoe"

"Happy days are here again" for the Boy Scouts of Chester county for the week tomorrow, July 9th, the camping season at Camp Horseshoe in southern Chester county will open. The season this year will be five weeks and adequate accommodations have been provided for a large enrollment of Scouts from all parts of the county, according to Thomas J. Price, Executive of the Council and director of the camp.

The enrollment of Scouts has been unusually good to date and even a larger number is anticipated during the coming week.

The "red letter" day on the season's camp calendar is Saturday, July 29, when a special program including the Hiawatha pageant will be presented in honor of the many parents and friends who will be the guests of the Scout Council for the afternoon and evening.

The staff announced by the camp director is as follows:

Cecil H. Good, Assistant Director and Director of the Wilderness Camp.
James R. Fecht, business manager and editor of Camp Horseshoe Echo.
Ralph E. Blakeslee, Pittsburgh, in charge of Indian lore and pageant director.
William P. Lear, West Chester, camp fire director.
Frank S. Beam, Scoutmaster Troop 1, Parkesburg, steward.
David Hartman, Troop 17, Phoenixville, assistant steward.
Winfield D. Murray, Downingtown, bookkeeper and camp clerk.

(Continued on page 6)

County Scout Camp to Open Sat., July 8

(Continued from Page One)

Melvin Brobst, Reading, Teachers College student, stenographer.

Dr. L. W. Eichna, University of Pennsylvania, camp physician.

Vernon Berkeheiser, Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 8, Coatesville, assistant in camp hospital.

H. Earle Newkirk, Wayne, naturalist.

Albert Love, Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 80, assistant naturalist.

C. E. Strayer, Scoutmaster Troop 21, swimming director.

Thomas H. C. Coxe, Bethlehem, assistant swimming director and boating and canoeing instructor.

Walter Kerwin, Scout, Troop 21, junior swimming director.

Charles Eggart, Darby high school teacher, band director.

George White, Scoutmaster, Troop 30, West Grove, handicraft.

A. Wayne Raysor, Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 2, Downingtown; Glenn Wolfe, Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 72, Pomeroy; Robert Jennings, Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 50, Devon; Charles F. Trunk, Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 8, Coatesville, and Ray Watson, Assistant Scoutmaster Troop 21, West Chester, each an assistant stockade leader.

Assistants for dining hall—

First week—Ralph Proud, Troop 30 and Gilbert Englerth, Troop 2.

Second week—James Reustle, Troop 17 and George Holland, Troop 35.

Third week—Charles Robinson, Troop 15 and Dick Johnson, Troop 7.

Fourth week—F. L. Moulds, Jr. Troop 56 and Nelson Wood, Troop 11.

Fifth week—Joseph Phillips, Troop 12 and Leon Lawrence, Troop 72.

Chef—Albert Smith, 1st chef at Westtown School, and Clarence Henry, second chef, student.

Among Scoutmasters and other who will attend as volunteer leaders are: Lester Moffatt, District Commissioner, District 2; J. M. Seacrist, principal of the Memorial Junior High, Phoenixville; Edward Dicks, District Commissioner, District 1; W. E. Knerr, Scoutmaster, Troop 15 Phoenixville; Walter Burkey, Scoutmaster, Troop 7, Malvern; C. S. Wetzel, Scoutmaster, Troop 79, Strafford; J. H. John, Scoutmaster, Troop 70, Thornedale; Jack Rennard, Scoutmaster, Troop 39, North Coventry; John Simpson, Scoutmaster, Troop 78, Willistown; Ernest Foster, Scoutmaster, Troop 30, West Grove; R. H. Way, Scoutmaster, Troop 59, Longwood; Richard Scully, Scoutmaster, Troop 74, Coatesville and McKim Haddaway, Deputy Commissioner, District 1.