

OPEN HOUSE NEXT SUNDAY AT CAMP OF BOY SCOUTS

"Open house" is to be observed at Camp Horseshoe, the camp of the Chester County Council of Boy Scouts, next Sunday, June 8, at which time it is expected that Scouts, Scouters, parents and friends of Scouting in large numbers will journey to the camp located along the Octoraro Creek in southern Chester county where they will have the opportunity of making a tour of the camp and of inspecting the swimming pool which will be completed before the opening of camp the latter part of this month. Visitors are asked to bring their basket lunch and to eat in picnic style in the many delightful spots at the camp. "Open house" will be observed from one-thirty until five Sunday afternoon.

The members of the camp staff and the Scouts who are members of the W. W. W., a national camp fraternity, will assemble at the Horseshoe on Saturday noon where after a luncheon they will tour the camp and visit the swimming pool. A meeting of the two groups and the conferring of the Second Degree of the W. W. W. will be the features of the afternoon and evening sessions. A campfire will be the closing feature of the Saturday night program.

Special church service will be held Sunday morning in the outdoor chapel, followed by a joint meeting of the senior and junior staff members and the W. W. W. member who will act as hosts to the visitors during the afternoon.
