

WORKERS ARE READY FOR BOY SCOUT CAMP

Camping days are here again! At noon tomorrow the members of the senior and junior staffs of Camp Horseshoe, the official camp of the Chester County Council of Boy Scouts, will report for duty in order to be in readiness for the Scouts who will arrive on next Sunday. The season promises to be a good one in every way, an experienced group of men having been secured to direct the activities at the camp for the summer months.

Thomas J. Price, Executive of the Scout Council, will be in general charge of the camp, serving in the capacity of Director.

C. C. Schmidt, of Glenolden, will act as assistant director and business manager of the camp, assisted by Henry Heintzleman, of Coatesville; Isaac Whyte, Jr., of Devon; William Gotwals, of Phoenixville, and Wayne Raysor, of Downingtown.

The following staff members will be in charge of the different camps: Camp 1, Nature Study, Donald G. Hughes, of Coatesville, assisted by David Heilig, of Downingtown. Camp 2, Cecil H. Good, of Thorndale, athletics, assisted by Sharples Worrall, of Kennett Square. Camp 3, First Aid, Agnew R. Ewing, West Grove, assisted by Paul McLaughlin, also of West Grove. Camp 4, Activities, Arnold Brown, Coatesville, assisted by Logan Shanaman, of Phoenixville. Camp 5, J. G. Starr, of Annville, swimming, assisted by William Larkin, of Downingtown, and Everett G. Brown.

William P. Lear, of West Chester, will be in charge of Kindness Center which includes Camp Fire Programs and Handicrafts. George B. Fox, 3d, of Westtown, will aid with the programs. Charles F. Trunk Jr., and Tom Yerkes, the latter of Westtown, will aid with the handicrafts.

Dr. Ralph C. Bradley, an intern at the Chester County Hospital, will serve in the capacity of camp physician during the summer.

O. R. Heistand, of Elizabethtown, will act as steward, aided by Vernon Berkeihiser, of Coatesville; Wayne Raysor, of Downingtown, and William McCord, of Phoenixville.

Sylvanus Jones, of West Chester, will be chief cook at the camp.
